WOMEN IN KHAKI GO TO CAMP. Fifty Hike Three Miles and Pitch Tents on Staten Island.

Fifty members of the American Women's League for Self-Defence detrained in khaki uniforms at Huguenot, Staten Island, last evening amid the cheers of the town, hiked the three miles to the beach under the lead of Mrs. Ida Priest and Mrs. Lee Boardman, organisars of the corps, and there went into camp. They pitched tents outside the two story frame building which is to be the dormitory, until it overflowed with

The camp, which is to last until Sep-tember 1, is in command of Capt. G. H. Higgins of the Ninth Coast Artillery, who has been drilling the women for the last four menths. On Monday a wire-less outfit will be assembled and rifle practice will begin.

JERSEY GUARDS LEAVE CAMP.

Militiamen Return to Camden After Week at Sen Girt.

SEA GIRT. Aug. 5.—Breaking camp in a fog that obscured the vision except for about 100 yards the men of the Third Regiment, N. G. N. J., left for their homes in Camden this afternoon after the most strenuous week the organiza-tion has ever spent in camp.

Shortly before the regiment left camp
Gov. James F. Fielder sent a letter to Col. Thomas D. Landon, in which he complimented him on the splendid way in which the men had carried themselves and upon the remarkable improvement. and upon the remarkable improvement which has been shown in the week they have been here. The Third came with a large percentage of new men, and during the week they have been whipped into fine shape by the officers,

Gov. and Mrs. Fielder will remain in the State cotter. the State cottage until after Labor Day, but the members of the executive staff and all other officers except Adjt.-Gen. Wilbur F. Sadler, Jr., left Sea Girt for their homes to-day.

INSECT BAGS SENT TO BORDER.

Women Forward 1,800 to Men Stationed on Mexican Line.

. Women of the army and navy supply committee of the American Defence Society yesterday forwarded to the Twelfth Regiment, New York National Guard, now on the border, 1,800 insect bags.

These consist of double strips of tape, which is about the peak. which fit about the neck. A quantity of naphthalene is contained in each, to dis-courage persistent fleas and ants that are too energetic and the like.

To Aid Guard Dependents.

The Active Service Auxiliary, N. G. N Y. and the National Special Aid Society will cooperate in a plan to provide employment for the dependents of guardsmen now on the border. The work consists principally in sewing, to be done at home by the wives and sisters of militia-

Action Withheld Pending Ex- act Translation of Word "Preferencialmente."

Washington, Aug. 5.—President Wilson is withholding action on the Mexican imbroglio until he can fathom just what Gen. Carranza meant in his last note. No American members of the proposed commission are to be appointed for the present. The State Department may be obliged to ask Carranza for an exact English translation of the Spanish word "preferencialmente." which the Mexican First Chief used in the critical phrase of his communication to this Government.

According to the Mexican Embassy's English version, the word means "pref-erably," the sense being that the Mexi-
